NEW YORK:

W. WORDEN, No. 619 BROADWAY, (Room 20).
1878.

Wright & Schondelmeier, Printers, 419 Broadway, N. Y.
Were it not for occupying too much time and space, it would be interesting to take our readers in imagination to the Battery, and thence up Broadway, tracing in our progress the changes made in these 27 years, noting both the ancient landmarks that still remain, as well as those familiar names which have disappeared from lower B'way, only to reappear farther up in more commodious and elegant quarters. The stirring events which have taken place during the past quarter of a century, have wrought more changes in our great metropolitan street than have ever occurred before in the same period of time. In fact it can only be likened to a kaleidoscope, constantly presenting new views, each one hand-somer than the preceding. We present a few of the most prominent points, trusting that this brief sketch will lead to many hours of pleasant research, which will be greatly facilitated by remembering that the numbers have not materially changed in the meantime.

No. 1 given herein as "The Washington" is still known as the Washington Hotel. Where now is Adams Express Co. No. 59, was then occupied by two drygoods houses. P. Harmony's Neighbors & Co. appear now, as then, at 63. The Empire Bldg, 71 & 73, now divided into offices, was then occupied by C. W. & J. T. Moore & Co., Chittenden, Bliss & Co. and J. R. Jaffray & Sons, all familiar names in the drygoods business. Trinity Church still looms up at the head of Wall street. At 106 is the name of the New York Life Ins. Co., Morris Franklin, Pres't; they still appear on B'way, at 346. 111, Trinity Bldg, now containing more parties than make up many a large village, was then occupied by Wight's Hotel, Pelatiah Wight, prop'r; Mortimer Smith, painter, and W. H. Michaels, trunks. The present extensive Equitable Bldg, was then occupied at 120 by a confectionery store, at 122 by a silk firm and a drygoods house, and 124 by a drygoods firm. John Milhan, drugs, at 183, is still continued by J. Milhan's Sons. The lofty Western Union Bldg was then occupied by the Franklin House, J. P. Treat, prop'r, and Edward Phalon, barber. D. Appleton & Co. appear at 200, since then have been at 346 & 449 B'way, then to 93 Grand, thence to 549 B'way. The Evening Post Bldg was then occupied by

LIMITED PARTNERSHIPS,

AND

COMPROMISES BY JOINT DEBTORS.

By CHARLES CRARY. 12mo. 60 pages. Flexible Cloth. 75 Cts.

This work contains the substance of Chap. XVII, of "Crary’s Law and Practice in Special Proceedings." (5th Ed., Vol. 1, pp. 701 to 725); and embraces the law in the State of New York in respect to LIMITED PARTNERSHIPS, and COMPROMISES BY PARTNERS AND JOINT DEBTORS.

It includes the latest amendments to the statutes, with the authorities and cases adjudicated by the courts in the latest published reports; and is issued in this form for the convenience of lawyers and business men, who may desire a concise compilation of the law on those subjects.

In an APPENDIX at the end of the work, are complete forms in the proceedings therein considered.

Sent on receipt of price.

BROADWAY DIRECTORY,
AND NEW YORK

BUSINESS REGISTER, FOR

The undersigned will publish in season for the spring trade of 1878, "WORDEN'S BROADWAY DIRECTORY, &c.," containing the names of all persons and firms doing business on the great thoroughfare and leading business street of the metropolis, arranged in numerical order, and also classified according to the profession, business or trade, &c.

Broadway being known the world over as the business street par excellence of the city, and comprising within its length more names than many of the smaller cities and towns where directories are sustained, to say nothing of its superior wealth, intelligence nor the enormous amount of business transacted within its limits is well worthy a special directory.

WORDEN'S BROADWAY DIRECTORY

will be neatly gotten up, printed from good type, in a form convenient for handy reference, at a low price, will be offered for sale as far as possible, on the principal railroad and other routes to the city, and every effort will be made to give it a wide circulation.

the auction rooms of Bangs, Brothers & Co. and others. The Park Ban Bank Bldg by Edward Fox, tailor, and Vanname & Bush, saloon.
The present Herald Bldg will be well remembered as the former site of Bangum's American Museum, while opposite, St. Paul's Chapel still stands, and the Astor House on the next block appears as permanent as its granite walls. At 247 appear Ball, Tomkins & Black, afterwards Ball, Black & Co. at 565, and now Black, Starr & Frost, 2531 Fifth Av. At 269 the old reliable Chemical Bank is still to be found. A. T. Stewart & Co.'s wholesale house is still on the old site, the members of the firm then being A. T. Stewart, W. H. Burrowes, Francis Warden, J. F. King & A. P. Montant. The New York Hospital, formerly 319, has disappeared within the memory of the present generation. The Tabernacle, formerly at 340, has located at Bway and 34th st. Davis Collamore, china, from 447, has arrived at 747. The Chinese Assembly Rooms, at 539, became afterwards Barnum's, and subsequently stores. Directly opposite, the Dusseldorf Gallery and the Church of the Divine Unity, then Rev.
H. W. Bellows, afterwards Dr. Chapin, have disappeared before the March of trade. 731, 733 & 735 were then occupied as private residences by J. J. Cisco, Paul Spofford and Thomas Tileston, all well known names. A. T. Stewart & Co.'s magnificent retail store was then occupied by eight private residences on the Bway side.
The tall spire of Grace Church pointed Heavenward, in 1851, as now. The Bway side of Union Sq. appears to have been omitted, so that we have no means of comparison between the two periods, but we remember the Church of the Puritans, Dr. Cheever, occupying the site of Tiffany's business palace. Above here, the names of Robert Goelet, 17th st., and Peter Goelet, 19th st., still remain.

The work for 1851 stopped at 25th st., but it is the purpose of the publishers to carry their new Directory for 1878 (now in press) up to the Central Park, nearly two miles farther, trusting that the future growth of New York will render it necessary, for whoever undertakes the work in 1905, to go to 100th st., in order to include all the business part of Broadway.

BROADWAY DIRECTOR
AND NEW YORK
BUSINESS REGIST

The undersigned will publish in season for the trade of 1878, "WORDEN'S BROADWAY DIRECTORY, &c.,” containing the names of persons and firms doing business on the great thoroughfare and leading business street of the metropolis, ranged in numerical order, and also classified according to the profession, business or trade, &c.

Broadway being known the world over as the street par excellence of the city, and comprising within its limits more names than many of the smaller cities and towns where directories are sustained, to say nothing of its superior wealth, intelligence nor the enormous amount of business transacted within its limits is well warranted in special directory.

WORDEN'S BROADWAY DIRECTOR will be neatly gotten up, printed from good type, convenient for handy reference, at a low price, offered for sale as far as possible, on the principal and other routes to the city, and every effort will be made to give it a wide circulation.
